LAS COLINAS GOLF & COUNTRY CLUB APPOINTS NEW DIRECTOR OF GOLF

Las Colinas Golf & Country Club, winner of 'Europe's leading Villa Resort' and 'Spain's Best Golf Course' in the World Golf Awards, is pleased to announce that Jon Brook has joined the team as the new Director of Golf.

As a 21-year member of the Professional Golfers Association, Jon brings over 15 years management experience to the position. Brook has excelled in a variety of golf roles across a portfolio of leading golf resorts under the Troon management. Before joining Las Colinas, Brook was acting General Manager at Saadiyat Beach Golf Club in Abu Dhabi as well as Director of Golf at the luxurious Chateau Golf & Spa d'Augerville in France and Velaa Private Island Resort in the Maldives. Away from his work with Troon, Jon was Deputy Director of Golf for over 7 years at the renowned Wentworth Club in the United Kingdom, home to the annual BMW PGA Championship event.

"We are delighted to welcome Jon to his new key role at Las Colinas Golf & Country Club" commented Cristobal Guerrero, General Manager at Las Colinas. "Our resort prides itself on providing world-class facilities and customer service, and we are positive that Jon's extensive experience and knowledge will be a great asset to us."

"I am very excited to have joined the team at Las Colinas Golf & Country Club and I am looking forward to having a positive impact on the resort and working with the team to ensure the resort continues to deliver top class golf and leisure experiences." said Jon Brook.

About Las Colinas Golf & Country Club

Located south of Alicante, Las Colinas Golf & Country Club is a 330-hectare valley between hills, near the sea, crossed by a championship golf course. An eco-friendly, low density housing development integrated into the environment.

The ideal place to get away from it all and enjoy 200,000 sq metres of beautiful countryside, with scenic trails through native vegetation and lemon and orange groves. The resort has two restaurants, UNiK CAFÉ and enso sushibar as well as an exclusive beach club and leisure facilities including a gym and tennis courts.

World renowned North American landscape architect, Cabell B. Robinson, designed the par-71, 6973 yard 18-hole championship course to offer visitors of all abilities an exciting and premium golf course within a unique setting. The Troon Golf managed course is home to perfectly manicured fairways and ideal putting surfaces with inspiring views of the nearby coastline and surrounded by 10,000 hectares of Mediterranean woodland.

The practice facilities at Las Colinas provide a fine learning environment, with natural grass hitting areas, manicured putting green and short game area, which can be used to hit a complimentary pyramid of TaylorMade practice balls. Directed by Head PGA Professional Robert Mitchell, the latest ultra-high-speed video analysis technology ensures first-class coaching for golfers of all ages and abilities.

About Gmp

Las Colinas Golf & Country Club has the backing of Gmp, one of the leading property-owning real estate groups in Spain, focussed on the development and management of office and business parks in Madrid. Gmp currently has a portfolio of more than 546,000 sq.metres of operating properties, with a land bank of 65,105 sq. metres of buildable area.

Gmp was also the first Spanish property-owning group to obtain the triple certificate from AENOR in 2009 for Quality, Environment and Health and Safety at Work for the business of acquisition, lease and management of maintenance, refurbishment and conservation of assets. In 2018 Gmp renewed these certificates up to 2021 and is still the only Spanish property-owning company to have been awarded this triple certificate. GIC, Singapore's sovereign wealth fund, has a 32.9% shareholding in the Company.
