

CASA CESILIA

WINE TOURISM

Discover the secrets and aromas of Mediterranean wines.

Las Colinas Golf & Country Club has selected the winery Casa Sicilia to enable wine lovers to discover traditional Mediterranean winemaking methods, ranging from the pruning process to aging in barrels through to bottling.

Casa Sicilia offers several wine tourism programmes including guided tours and wine tasting. In addition, its restaurant provides a range of carefully selected menus so that you can savour Mediterranean cuisine paired with the perfect wine.

Enjoy a different experience during your stay at Las Colinas Residences
WITH A SPECIAL 10% DISCOUNT.

Contact our reservations department at reservations@lascolinasgolf.es and we will arrange all the details.

CGR does not participate in the provision of the services offered by the indicated companies and takes no liability for the correct provision thereof, their validity or the application of the terms indicated herein; such matters will be the sole responsibility of the advertised companies. The engagement of any service from the companies indicated herein will take place directly between the client and the company, with no intervention at any time or of any type by CGR. CGR does not obtain any type of remuneration from the advertised companies or from the clients as a result of the contractual relationship eventually entered into by the same.

LAS COLINAS
Golf & Country Club

